

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pronoun and Antecedent

Pronoun: A pronoun takes place of a noun.

Antecedent: It is the noun or group of words that a pronoun refers back to.

Example: Gary feeds his dog every morning.

(The pronoun in this example is his. The antecedent is Gary.)

Directions: Read the sentences carefully. Underline the pronouns and circle the antecedents.

1. The students waited for their results eagerly.
2. The cat ate its treats and emptied the jar.
3. Michael submitted his assignment late.
4. Carmen waved to her friend, Jenna.
5. I buy fruits from the farmers market because their fruits are always fresh.
6. Mrs. Parker was very hungry, so she finished the whole pizza.
7. The students suggested to visit the fire station for their field trip.
8. The cake was very delicious. My mom baked it for my birthday.